

What do your dues get you?

OAAE Membership Benefits

- Legislative advocacy for the profession. The OAAE is instrumental in establishing 5th Quarter funds.
- Technical and pedagogical in-service education
- Leadership and personal development is encouraged through Delegate Council participation.
- Awards and Recognition Programs take place during the Summer Meeting.
- Mechanism for influencing the future direction of the profession. We work closely with OSU, Wilmington College and the State Department of Education to develop programs.
- Idea exchange forum
- Instructional materials and resources can be obtained from the OAAE Office and the State Department of Education
- Camaraderie and fellowship is an important aspect to the OAAE membership.
- OAAE's Mentoring program continues to develop through the efforts of the organization along with OSU and the State Department of Education.
- Communications through e mails and newsletters is originated out of the OAAE Office on a weekly basis. The OAAE website provides information and links at www.oaae.info

OACTE/ACTE Membership Benefits

- **Techniques* magazine - Techniques will keep you up-to-date on the issues that matter and provide you with hands-on teaching tips and "success stories" you can use in your classroom and community.
- *Advocacy- ACTE successfully promotes the interests of our members in Washington, D.C., and at the state and local level.
- *Convention and Trade Show -OACTE and ACTE's convention offers invaluable professional development sessions, workshops and networking opportunities for career and technical educators annually.
- *Insurance -With ACTE membership, you receive a $25,000 travel accidental death & dismemberment insurance policy, which increases $5,000 every year with your continuous membership (up to a maximum coverage of $50,000).
- * www.acteonline.org -ACTE's exciting web site provides information and help in meeting the challenges of being an educator.

NAAE Member Benefits

- $100,000 Educator's Professional Liability Policy at no extra cost!
- Members may increase their coverage to $1,000,000 for an additional $35.00 per year or increase to $2,000,000 coverage for an additional $50.00 per year.
- Since NAAE is a member of the Trust for Insuring Educators, you have access to these plans:
  - Term Life
  - Private Practice Liability
  - Long Term Health Care
  - Personal Auto
  - Disability Income Protection
  - Cancer Plan
- Professional development through workshops at the NAAE convention, the National FFA convention, and during the summer.
- The opportunity to receive awards and recognition designed to reward excellence in agricultural education programs and in teaching.
- Networking with your peers and enjoying camaraderie and fellowship with others in the agricultural education profession.
- Keep you up-dated on what's happening in agricultural education through News & Views, our quarterly newsletter.
- To supply you with instructional materials such as the Risk Management in American Agriculture modules.
- To represent your interests in agricultural education
  - through government relations
  - U.S. Congress
  - U.S. Department of Education
  - U.S. Department of Agriculture
  - through representation on other boards, such as
  - Nat'l Council for Agricultural Education
  - National FFA Board of Directors
  - ACTE Ag Ed Division

Become a part of your professional organization today!

OAAE Office: 740-828-3832

Contact the OAAE Office to establish any type of payment plan!